NEWS FROM THE WINEMAKER

Dear 1772 Club Member,

I hope you have been soaking up summer with a glass of Sauvignon Blanc in hand! The end of summer at the winery marks the time of year for harvest preparation. It has been a cooler year overall, so we are not expecting to see any fruit at the winery until mid-September. This gives us plenty of time to train all seasonal interns, clean the entire facility, and prepare all fermentation plans. We love having this extra time as it means more hands-on, classroom style training, for our seasonal interns. We find this helps give them a big picture view of our winemaking techniques, and our wines.

While we wait on harvest, I will be checking on the vineyard weekly. This affords me the opportunity to see and taste fruit from every block we bring into the winery. Observing crop load, berry size and fruit quality helps me formulate a plan for each vineyard for harvest.

One wine that we have to think about early during harvest is the Sea Bed Chardonnay. We love to incorporate a few early picks of Chardonnay into this wine to provide some crunchy acid and bright fruit. Once these barrels are through fermentation, we do a mid-harvest blending session to figure out the perfect ratio of each component. From there, we halt malolactic fermentation to preserve the acid. This makes Sea Bed a very unique Chardonnay as it is barrel fermented and aged but does not go through that secondary fermentation. This is a great wine to compliment the end of summer. If you are looking for the perfect summer red, the Cuveé Pinot Noir 2020 is a great option. The bright acidity and fruit pair perfectly for a refreshing glass on a warm summer day. Finally, the Stone Lion Pinot Noir 2017 is a great representation of how well our wines age. This wine is perfectly paired with your end of summer BBQs. The notes of leather balanced by plum and strawberry complement each other perfectly.

We are happy to be part of your summer plans and hope to see you around the winery in the fall!

Cheers!

ABOUT OUR SEPTEMBER RELEASES

The Stone Lion Pinot Noir 2017, Cuveé Pinot Noir 2020, and Sea Bed Chardonnay 2022 were selected by the winemaker for this club allocation. These are excellent wines to enjoy at an end of summer celebration or to commence your fall festivities. The Stone Lion Pinot Noir 2017 is crafted to exhibit a bold structure, while maintaining the lusciousness we love about California Pinot Noir. The Sea Bed Chardonnay 2022 is named to symbolize the soils of the ancient ocean floor where our vines now grow. The Cuvée Pinot Noir 2020 is a blend of extraordinary Pinot Noir lots from appellations across California. Finish the summer strong with this curated bundle of wines.

1772 Chardonnay 2018 - White Only Club

Stone Lion Pinot Noir 2017

The Stone Lion Pinot Noir is crafted to exhibit a bold and rich structure, while maintaining the lusciousness we love about California Pinot Noir. It starts in the vineyard where we select lots that yield a slightly riper grape and schedule the harvest at peak ripeness. Notes of grenadine syrup, leather, and violet featuring well-integrated tannins with a fattiness and round mouthfeel. Aromas of savory beef au jus, black pepper, thyme, with sensuous notes of red plum, strawberry, violet and coffee beans. View Pairing Recipe

Sea Bed Chardonnay 2022

The Sea Bed Chardonnay is named to symbolize the soils of the ancient ocean floor where our vines now grow. The Chardonnay vines thrive in the calcium-rich marine sediment and limestone soils. The ancient estuary lends the conditions to produce a Chardonnay with a striking mix of limestone etched minerality, a kiss of seaborne salinity, and vibrant acidity that leaves the palate watering for the next sip. Cuveé Pinot Noir 2020

The Cuvée Pinot Noir 2020 is a blend of extraordinary Pinot Noir lots from appellations across California. This wine represents a precise collaboration that showcases and preserves the unique character of each region. Youthful, powerful aromas of blackberry, blueberry, cassis and fig accented by notes of baking cocoa, fennel, cardamom, black pepper, and tobacco on the nose. Full bodied with firm tannins. Similar concentrated ripe fruits alongside Italian leather, dark chocolate, and balsamic reduction flavors and a lovely savory quality. View Pairing Recipe

Stone Lion Pinot Noir 2020

The 2020 vintage began with a cool winter and long-awaited rainfall, resulting in bright expressive fruit ready to pick in late August. With a medium-bodied foundation and youthful flavors of wild strawberry and red currant, this Pinot Noir possesses all of the components for an ideal springtime wine. Indulge in this nuanced and balanced Pinot Noir, as you experience a nose of ripe cherries and plum enlivened by notes of earl grey tea and leather. View Pairing Recipe

Stone Lion Chardonnay 2021

The Stone Lion Chardonnay is a true reflection of the minerality embedded within our soil on Edna Ranch. The 2021 vintage was a longer growing season, allowing us time to patiently wait for optimal flavors and phenolic ripeness to strategically pick the grapes at the perfect moment. This Chardonnay showcases youthful aromas of yellow apple and pear, accentuated by notes of toasted macadamia nut brought to life through malolactic fermentation. View Pairing Recipe

1772 Chardonnay 2018

It's fair to assume that most California Chardonnay should be consumed sooner than later, they simply don't get better over time. This wine is just the opposite, it's exciting to think where this wine will be in five years. The toasty, confectionary almond and gardenia notes are the perfect complement to the honeydew melon, yellow apple and apricot fruit aromas. Most importantly, the medium body and bright acidity of this wine proudly speaks to Edna Valley. View Pairing Recipe

FEATURED 1772 ADD-ON OPTION

Sauvignon Blanc 2022

Retail: $50 | 1772 Club: $40.00

Grape for this wine came from the Moretti Canyon vineyard. Planted in 1999, this small four-acre vineyard is tucked into the eastern reaches of Edna Valley and the foothills of the Santa Lucia Mountains with rocky soils with slightly warmer daytime temperatures. The moderate year round temperature, produced a Sauvignon Blanc that exemplifies the characteristics of the region. With rich, polished aromas of lime, nectarine, pear and passion fruit accent notes of citrus blossom and lemongrass, this Sauvignon Blanc is sure to please at any event. View Pairing Recipe

FEATURED SINGLE VINEYARD ADD-ON OPTION

Toyon Farm Vineyard Pinot Noir 2017

Los Carneros Napa Valley

Library Pricing: $152 | *1772 Club: $104

*Special pricing valid for a limited time.

Toyon Farm is on the southwest corner of Napa in the heart of the Carneros region. Toyon Farm is home to an operating dressage boarding and training facility located amongst 34 acres of some of the most sought-after Pinot Noir and Chardonnay vineyards in the Napa Valley. The Carneros region experiences morning fog and a cool afternoon breeze from the San Pablo Bay, the northern extension of the San Francisco Bay. The vineyard is sloped and southwest facing, capturing the sun's warmth after the morning fog lifts. The vines are cane-pruned and carry an average of 2-3 tons per acre. The soil is sandy-clay loam with great water retention. View Recipe
